Preface

Bibliographies are usually collection of references to published materials like books and journals.

Papers dealing with indigenous knowledge about plants were periodically published in variety of print media (journals, magazine, newspapers, etc), such material is occasionally included in books on Ideology, ethnographies and history of medicines etc. but no bibliography as such on the subject ethnobotany was published till 1983.

In 1984, BSI brought out a book, "Bibliography of Ethnobotany" which covered about 1600 references on ethno-botany as also notable books and papers relevant to the subject till about 1982-1983.

Only 17 years later, enough literature on the subject was created and second bibliography having about 1800 references was published in 2002. It covered references mainly till the year 2000.

The 21st century saw a remarkable spread of the subject and in only 15 years need for another bibliography was felt. This briefly is the background of this book.

The present bibliography covers in general the work published in 21st century. A few references earlier than 2001 considered essential for any student of ethnobotany are included.

Thanks are due to directors and heads of several institutions particularly the Botanical Survey of India (Head-quarters and regional offices), CSIR-National Botanical Research Institute, Lucknow for providing access to their libraries and to many botanists for supplying list of contents of journals and other references.

For this, authors are grateful particularly to Drs. Ashok K. Jain, Ajay Mehta (President, VBS), S.S. Katewa, A.A. Mao, Harsh Singh, Madhumita Nath, S.L. Meena, and Vartika Jain for providing help in this work. The second author (S.K.J.) is grateful to Indian National Science Academy, New Delhi and Institute of Ethnobiology, Gwalior for supporting this scientific work.

First author extends her gratitude and warm thanks to Dr. Satish Kumar Sharma, Dr. T.P. Sharma (Director, VBRI) Dr. Saba Khan, Dr. Praveen Galav, Dr. Sonali Singh, Dr. Sushma Jain, and Mr. Laxman Singh

Rajput for their cooperation and support. She also expresses her gratitude to her parents & in-laws for the unforgettable love and affection bestowed on her during the entire research work and want to give special thanks to her husband Mr. Anubhav Jain who has been the pillar of strength and support throughout the work and always remained by her side as and when needed. Last but not the least she extends her thanks to her loving kids Vidit Jain and Geetanshu Jain for being sweet and patient to let this work complete.
